

4th Avenue Theatre

Located in the heart of downtown, this theater was built in 1947 and is one of the best examples of Art Deco style in America.

Pioneers of Alaska Igloo No. 19 Cordova

Constructed in 1928 by the Pioneers of Alaska organization to serve as the brotherhood's headquarters and meeting hall, the Pioneer Igloo Building is in need of rehabilitation to stabilize the deteriorating structure.

Alaska's Historic Canneries, Throughout Coastal Alaska

(Port O'Brien Cannery, Uganik)

One of the most important 20th century industries on the West Coast was—and in some places still is—the canning of Pacific salmon. In 1878, fish packers opened the first canneries in southeastern Alaska, by 1882, the first in Central Alaska. The canned salmon industry produced more revenue between 1880 and 1937 than all the minerals mined during the same period.

ABOUT AAHP The Alaska Association for Historic Preservation (AAHP) was founded in 1981 as a private, nonprofit corporation. AAHP is dedicated to the preservation of Alaska's prehistoric and historic heritage as manifested in its buildings and sites.

AAHP publishes a quarterly newsletter; holds workshops; assists historic preservation projects across Alaska; monitors and supports legislation to promote historic preservation; and serves as liaison between local, statewide, and national historic preservation groups.

The TEN MOST ENDANGERED HISTORIC PROPERTIES GRANT PROGRAM BEGAN IN 1991 The Ten program funds hands-on preservation efforts on endangered properties and serves as seed money to leverage funding from other sources.
